The DELFL Prim A1 is an official certificate to certify the proficiency in French as a Foreign Language for children who are beginners in French. The DELFL Prim A1 is an international certification of French language proficiency and it is awarded by the French Ministry of Education.

Why take the DELFL Prim A1 exam?

- To reward your child's work at school and treat him/her with his/her first certificate of French.
- To officially attest the level of French of your child to enter a bilingual or French School.
- To prepare your child for the next levels of DELFL through his/her progress at school.

DELFL Prim A1 exam structure

The exam topics are made to suit primary (elementary) student's interest: immediate environment (family, personal details, interests, friends), everyday situations, etc. The following linguistic skills are assessed:

- Listening Comprehension (Comprehension de l'Orale)
- Reading Comprehension (Comprehension des Ecrits)
- Written Expression (Production Ecrite)
- Oral Expression/Interaction (Production Orale)

Candidate must obtain at least 50 points out of 100 in all four exam skills to earn the DELFL Prim A1.1 certificate.
